

Information for all North West Region A and 2nd year B riders

As you may be aware selection for the UK School Games 2018 will soon be upon us. This year's games will be held at Loughborough University from 31st August to 2nd September. A change to the format now means that all riders will be required to compete in both track and road events.

The selection criteria and process for 2018 will be as follows:

1 male and 1 female rider will be selected based on road/circuit race performance (calculated by aggregated finishing position) in:

- Sleepwell Hotels Isle of Man Youth Tour
- Hillingdon Slipstreamers Youth National Circuit Race
- Youth Tour of London 2018

1 male and 1 female rider will be selected based on track performance (calculated by aggregated finishing position) in:

- Knowsley Youth Track Omnium
- Scunthorpe Youth Track Omnium

2 male and 2 female riders will be selected as wild card entries. For their selection a collection of evidence will be considered including:

- Performances at the above events
- Performances at all competitive events
- Personal Statements submitted with applications

All information collected within the application process will be considered for every selection, insufficient or inappropriate applications will be rejected.

Riders will representing the Region and as such behaviour is always a consideration.

Riders will be selected by a panel appointed by the Region Board whose decisions are final. We will not be able to provide personalised feedback to unsuccessful applicants.

Applications must be submitted by Monday 2nd July 2018 using the online form available here:
